Subject: Milton Historic Preservation Board Ordinance Workshop

Dear Property Owner,

The City of Milton is holding a public workshop regarding the Historic District and historic preservation in Milton, and inviting all interested property owners and citizens to attend and provide input, during The Historic Preservation Board regular scheduled meeting on Thursday, May 19, 2022, at 5:30 p.m. in the Council Chambers at Milton City Hall.

The subject of the workshop will be to consider changes to the City of Milton's Code of Ordinances regarding the Historic District and historic preservation as the City of Milton applies to become a Certified Local Government, as designated by the State of Florida.

You can compare the current ordinance and draft ordinance at the link below:

The purpose of the workshop is to receive input on the proposed certified local government draft ordinance pertaining to the Historic District and historic preservation in Milton.

The Historic Preservation Board has made significant progress in its last four workshops and has incorporated many changes sought by those in attendance. As we continue to make progress, we would like to hear from you.

If you have any questions or comments, please call the City of Milton Planning & Development Department at 850-983-5440.

Sincerely,

Tim Milstead
Director of Planning & Development
